

Randy Campbell

As a point of introduction, I am Randy Campbell. When I was a young boy growing up in Simpsonville, SC, I never dreamt I would be a Regional Sales Manager for Patterson Fan. Instead, I thought my love for baseball would lead me to play third base for the New York Yankees...life is a curveball!

As Regional Sales Manager, I've been blessed developing the states of Texas, Illinois, and Indiana along with a handful of National Accounts. I've achieved the highest sales levels in each of the last three years for the Regional Sales Group. This was accomplished by listening and understanding my customers' needs and seizing upon those opportunities and challenges

I've learned no air movement problem is too small. By walking with my customers on a daily basis I've been able to grow my territory and cultivate relationships along the way. I get a high sense of accomplishment when I can help solve a problem my customers may have with air movement.

While not at Patterson Fan, my time is spent with family including two miniature dachshunds. I labor on the modest "Campbell Estate" honing my own "Garden of Eden". This includes a seasonal battle each year to keep a pesky squirrel, rabbit, and deer away from flower beds and the vegetable garden. I enjoy seeing and experiencing the wonders our country offers with the goal of visiting all 50 states.... Hawaii maybe next year! I am a huge sports fan and die many deaths each year following the trials and tribulations of the Yankees, Braves, Carolina Panthers, and others. I am deeply concerned about our country and pray for eternal blessings upon its citizens.
